KRISTINA CRESTIN DESIGN

It's been a big year for designer Kristina Crestin, from working on This Old House to being named one of New England Home's "5 Under 40" winners. Crestin works closely with clients from start to finish on their projects, from pre-construction planning to architecture, design, and decorating to total project management. The result is evident in her beautiful bath designs, which are filled with the same elegance as the rest of the home, from the crisp, classic design of a richly hued blue and white bath with touches of natural wood to a fun, modern green-tiled guest bath with pops of teak and cherry. 7 Summer St., Unit 3, Manchester-by-the-Sea, 978-890-7186, kristinacrestindesign.com

WILSON KELSEY DESIGN

Wilson Kelsey Design is helmed by the husband-and-wife team of John Kelsey and Sally Wilson; the latter was recently elected vice president of the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art, New England Chapter. The firm is a multi-award-winning one, including a number of American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) Design Excellence Awards and a 2010 Bulfinch Award from the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art, New England Chapter. They work closely with homeowners for designs that are deeply personal and gorgeously rendered. Their meticulous and caring renovations allow historic homes to shine, as in the 1804 Federal Forster Leach House in Manchester-by-the-Sea, which drew inspiration from original details like a mantel attributed to Samuel McIntire. 37 Dearborn St., Salem, 978-741-4234, wilsonkelseydesign.com

HEARTWOOD KITCHENS

Heartwood Kitchens might have kitchens at heart, but it's far from the only thing they focus on when designing. They also pay attention to adjacent spaces and the home as a whole to ensure the best flow, style synchronicity, and functionality. Heartwood's specialty is space planning and cabinetry design, which is evident in every kitchen they work on, whether it's a fixer-upper Victorian or a dark and dated 1980s kitchen being reimaged as an open and bright space with a nod to the home's original history. 75 Newbury St., Danvers, 978-762-7472, heartwoodkitchens.net
